Logo do’s and don’ts

Rules for using the logo effectively while avoiding common mistakes that could compromise brand consistency

Do’s

Use Approved Versions:
Use only the approved versions of the logo as outlined in the brand guidelines. This ensures consistency across all applications and maintains brand integrity.

Maintain Clear Space: Always maintain the specified clear space around the logo to ensure visibility and impact. Avoid placing other graphic elements too close to the logo, which can detract from its effectiveness.

Use Correct Colors: Use the correct colors as specified in the brand guidelines. Ensure that the logo appears in the approved color variations and follows any guidelines for color usage, such as reversed or grayscale versions.

Maintain Proportions:
Always maintain the proportions of the logo and avoid stretching, squashing, or distorting it. This ensures that the logo retains its visual balance and legibility across different applications. Ensure Legibility: Ensure that the logo remains legible at all sizes and in all contexts. Avoid using the logo at sizes where details become indistinct or hard to read, and ensure that it is always displayed on backgrounds that provide sufficient contrast.

Scale Appropriately: Scale the logo appropriately for each application, ensuring that it is neither too large nor too small relative to other design elements. Consider the viewing distance and medium when determining the optimal size of the logo.

Don’ts

Distort or Stretch: Do not distort, stretch, or skew the logo. Maintain the original proportions of the logo

Use Unapproved Colors: Do not use colors that are not specified in the brand guidelines.

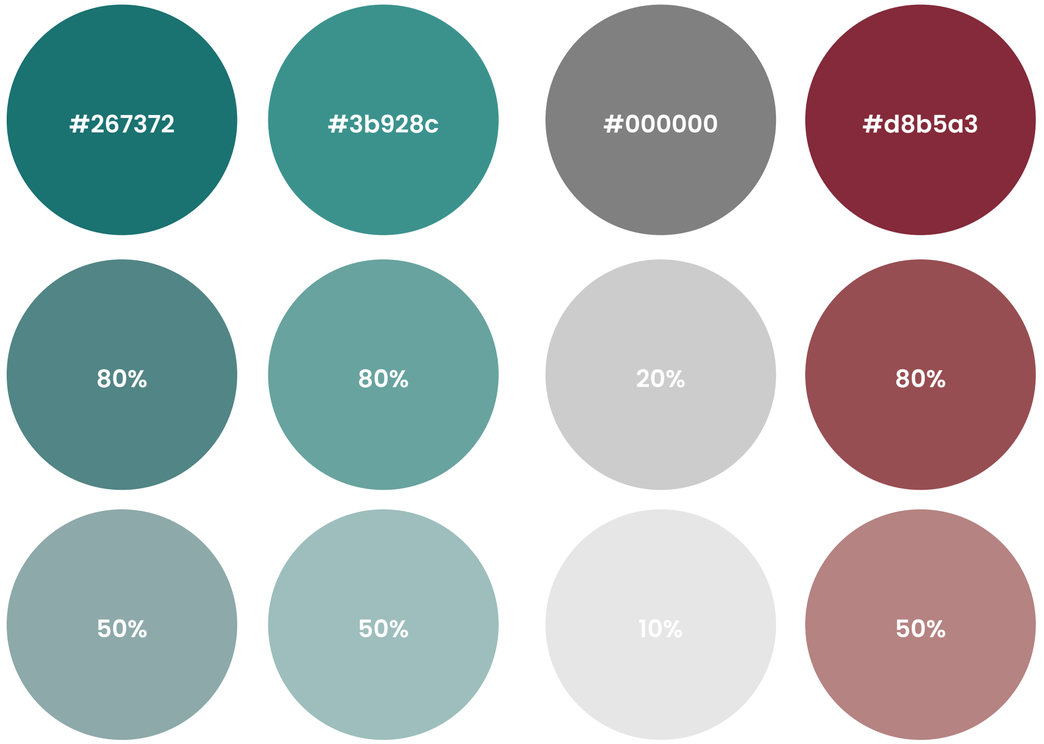

Do not remove education from the logo
